Rich

One reason I want to be rich is so my mom does not have to work. Another is I want to do whatever I want. That is why I want to be rich.

The first reason I want to be rich is so my mom does not have to work. My mom is a hard working mom and I love her for that. She supports me in what I do unless it is bad. I would like to return the things she has done for me. Like buy her a new house to put a new roof over her head.

The next thing I would do if I was rich is to do what I want. The first thing I would do is go buy my own island. I would give some to my friends so they can do things to. I would go buy a Dr. Pepper machine because I love Dr. Pepper. Then I would invite all my friends over and go out to eat.

In conclusion I would like to look forward to being rich. That is what I would wish for so I could have a better life. Being rich is to helping your friends or family.

Score Point: 3

This response reflects a limited degree of proficiency in expository writing skills. Two reasons why the writer wishes to be rich are explained (so my mom does not have to work and to do what I want). There are some errors in writing conventions, but they do not impede communication. Although the response is organized, further development of the key ideas would be required for a higher score.
